The San Gabriel is a uniquely designed home that is perfect for small families. It has plenty of space for relaxing and entertaining, with a large family room that is open to the dining area and overlooked by an open counter and eating bar in the kitchen. With a raised ceiling and windows throughout, the main gathering space in this home is filled with light. Extending from the right side of the family room is a utility room and the master suite, complete with an oversize ceramic tile shower, soaking tub, large walk-in closet, and dual vanities. Two bedrooms and a full bathroom branch off from the foyer at the front entrance.
