Raised and stepped ceilings, plenty of windows, sizable covered porches, and an open design create a welcoming gathering space in the Palacios. The front entrance opens into a large flex room on the right, family room ahead, and kitchen to the left. The kitchen features an open counter with an eating bar looking into the family room, a dining area, and a walk-in pantry, with space for a chest freezer in the adjacent utility room. The right side of the home holds a master suite with an oversize seated shower, soaking tub, dual vanities, and a walk-in closet, as well as separate living quarters made up of two bedrooms and a full bathroom.
