The Travis is a very spacious and open home. Coming in from a sizable covered porch, the front entry foyer leads into a vast family room with a raised ceiling and a wall of windows, completely open to the kitchen and dining area. The kitchen features a long island with an eating bar, a walk-in pantry, and space for a chest freezer in the adjacent utility room. On the right side of the house, a luxurious master suite occupies the rear, featuring an oversize walk-in seated shower, dual vanities, and two large walk-in closets. Two bedrooms with walk-in closets and a full bathroom are situated in separate living quarters toward the front.
