You're sure to love the space and versatility offered by the Sonora. One side of this home features a spacious master suite with two large walk-in closets, an oversized shower, and separate vanities. A hallway connects to the living quarters on the opposite side, including three bedrooms and a full bathroom. Adjoining the two sides is the kitchen with an attached dining area and spacious walk-in pantry, along with a large adjacent family room that looks out onto a large covered porch at the rear of the home. At the front of the home are a large private study and a wide-covered front porch.
